Restaurants: Sidecut declares its spectacular alpine location with glorious views of the local mountains and a brilliant, fire-lit setting. A sleek wood interior, colourful earth tones and an open fire provide a cozy setting for breakfast, lunch or dinner. An updated version of the classic steakhouse, Sidecut serves Canadian prime steaks – aged 40 days and cooked to perfection on a 1,800° infrared grill, fresh local seafood and regional specialties, such as BC Fallow Venison Loin and Bone-in Braised Bison Short Ribs. Entrées are served with a choice of six rubs and presented with a plate of six signature sauces for even more flavourful variety. The restaurant's extensive wine list features more than 200 bottles and 30 wines by the glass, highlighting a wide variety of labels, from international classics to boutique British Columbia wines.
