

History of the Award:

The Douglas J. B. Wright Award was created in 1992 by the Electrical Contractors Association of Ontario and the Ontario Electrical Construction Company Limited to pay tribute to individuals who best exemplify the dedication and commitment to the electrical contracting industry as exhibited by Doug Wright through his years of service. The Award Committee consists of three representatives from ECAO, two representatives from Ontario Electrical Construction Company Ltd. and the Executive Director of ECAO as an ex-officio.

Application and Selection Criteria:

1. All named applicants must be or have been employed by a corporation or company that is a member of ECAO.
2. Application and selection will take into consideration the named applicant's involvement in the electrical industry at the provincial, local and national level.
3. Any other notable contributions to the electrical industry and how they are perceived by the members of ECAO as providing leadership within the industry.
4. Length of service to the electrical industry.
5. Any other community involvement for which they are recognized.

Application and Selection Procedure:

1. Annually, members, or area ECAs, will be invited to submit a nomination form 90 days prior to the submittal due date.
2. Only those nominations received by the submittal due date will be considered.
3. The D. J. B. Wright Award Committee will meet to review all nominations and determine a recipient for the award no later than 45 days after the submission due date.
4. All unsuccessful nominators will be notified.
